COMPLAINS OF

POLICE COURT.

LIEUTENANT AMISS IS SEVERE.

Present Practice Rapidly Reducing Sunday Regulation to a Howling Farce-Policy of Delay in the Pelice Court.

According to a report recently submitted by Lieut, T. B. Amisa, of the First precinct, the practice of the Police Court in disposing of liquor and gambling cases brought before it is radically wrong.

Lieutenant Amins in his report resorts to the calling of a certain d'asing implement a spade. He indulges in no circumlocation, and says in so many words that form of endersements to applications for certain liquor licenses recently returned to the District Excise Board after consid-eration by the Police Department. In hotel keeper, conflucts a place in which the sale of liquor and gambling are carried on in violation of the faw. He says further that the hotel is frequented by an underirable class of guests, and that practices there carried on are not conducive to the public perce.

Liquitement Amiss complains of the manual control of the faw.

Lieutemant Amiss complaints of the man-ner in which a case against the proprie-tor of this house was disposed of in the Police Court. On this point he says: "The case that was dismissed in the Police Court was nothing less than through the manipulation by counsel in getting cases postponed for about cight times. It is a burning shares that there cannot be more promptness in the Police Court in hearing liquor, bawdy house, and "There appears to be a studied system by which such cases are postponed. I might say almost indefinitely, anyhow until witnesses are worn cut and often move without the jurisdiction of the District of Columbia. I recommend the licease for the applicant be refused."
